

CONSENT TO USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

Consent to use and disclose your health information

This form is an agreement between you, _____ and me/us Jane Z. Woodrow, Ph.D. When we use the word "you" below, it will mean your child, relative, or other person if you have written his or her name here _____.

When we examine, diagnose, treat, or refer you, we will be collecting what the law calls Protected Health Information (PHI) about you. We need to use this information here to decide on what treatment is best for you and to provide treatment to you. We may also share this information with others who provide treatment to you or need it to arrange payment for your treatment or for other business or government functions.

By signing this form, you are agreeing to let us use your information here and possibly send it to others. The Notice of Privacy Practices explains in more detail your rights and how we can use and share your information and when we ask for your specific consent or authorization. Please read this before you sign this Consent form.

If you do not sign this consent form agreeing to what is in our Notice of Privacy Practices, we cannot treat you.

In the future, we may change how we use and share your information and so may change our Notice of Privacy Practices. If we do change it, we will post a copy in the office and call it to your attention or you can call us 740/592-4801 to find out if changes have been made.

If you are concerned about some of your information, you have the right to ask us to not use or share some of your information for treatment, payment, or administrative purposes. You will have to tell us what you want in writing. Although we will try to respect your wishes, we are not required to agree to these limitations. However, if we do agree, we promise to comply with your wish.

After you have signed this consent, you have the right to revoke it (by writing a letter telling us you no longer consent) and we will comply with your wishes about using or sharing your information from that time on, but we may already have used or shared some of your information and cannot change that.
